Thurs., April 29 - 3-4 pm

The Presenter:

Dee Mason, President
Working Partners®

Founded by Dee, Working Partners® has more than 1,700 drug-free workplace clients nationwide. Dee has 19 years of relevant experience, with expertise in drug-free policy, programs, legal issues, testing, employee education, and supervisor training. She and her firm are relied upon by individual employers, providers and government agencies, including the Ohio BWC, to provide technical assistance, systems feasibility and development for effective and efficient drug-free workplace programs.

The Ohio Bureau of Workers' Compensation (BWC) is retiring its current Drug-free Workplace Program (DFWP) as of June 30, 2010, and is replacing it with the new Drug-free Safety Program (DFSP) as of July 1, 2010.

State fund employers who are currently in the program, have never been in the program, as well as those who exhausted the benefits of the former program or were previously disqualified, should all consider attending this webinar to learn what is new. The next enrollment date for the DFSP ends June 30.

Working Partners® will present the BWC's new program elements and procedures.
